

A POINTER

ON THE SIDE

It is not the most perfect in outward form who usually inspire the deepest respect for themselves or any one else.

Modesty in speech, as the same in dress, shows good sense, and girls should be careful not to dress too gay.

The most lasting attachments are lavished on women possessing but a moderate share of personal attractions.

It is uncouth for three or more girls to be reading and for one to burst out in a laugh. It is very annoying to the others.

Beauty of person has been regarded in every age as an effective weapon to conquer man, and I do not condemn any girl for making herself as prepossessing as possible.

Avoid powder and paint or any cosmetics that will tend to make you look pretty, as most men dislike artificial beauty.

It is a sin to wish to be beautiful, as it leads many a young woman into numberless follies and extravagances.

If half of the hours spent in the adornment of the person were devoted to the moral training of the heart and cultivating the mind, woman would find her influence greater and more powerful.

Women could excite an admiration of sentiment composed of esteem, respect, and love, if they would only be a little more careful of how they act, what they do and say.

Sweetness of temper always places the stamp of a certain kind of real loveliness on homely women, and makes elderly ones appear youthful.

Because you are in better circumstances, or can afford to dress better than your neighbor's daughter, don't act like you think so, for it classes you with the most abominable of all silly girls.

Never speak of the wealth of your parents or your inheritance among strangers. It shows that you are not used to it. Many a girl always make this a specialty.

It seems impossible for some women to make themselves agreeable; but it is a duty they owe to the sex to make themselves pleasing to their friends and society.

One of the greatest mistakes our girls make is not to study the art of dress, or arraying themselves in becoming colors. Later on I shall endeavor to give the colors that are becoming to different complexions.

Avail yourselves of the appliances for the improvement of your appearance, but the most careful attention to the toilet will not make you sufficiently attractive to be lovable or estimable.

Remember it is the woman of high intelligence and sweetness of temper who becomes the theme of admiration and individual attention, and the woman of the hour.

Prove yourselves to be kind and amiable; cultivate your intellect and be natural, and be the creature that man needs, cherishes, and esteems.

Don't wear eyeglasses "for style." Many a silly girl has ruined her eyes as well as her brains for the sake of style.

Pretty girls should be more thoughtful, as it is said that they do not give as much thought to the cultivation of their minds as they do to the construction of a new dress; hence they cannot converse so intelligently as their plain sisters.

When mind and matter are weighed in a balance, the matter is often found wanting and la belle wears a grievous blush.

D. C.—Do not marry a man whose family is opposed to you except he assures you that his esteem is greater for you than that of his family. If you love your husband you should respect his family, as a man always admires a woman who respects his people.

Don't act like a twelve year old girl, who is very often shy, when you are twice that age. It may be natural, but most people will call it pretense.

It is a fact that the majority of men are peculiarly fitted to let the discipline of children alone; but the father is never blamed for defending himself against his young household rebels.

C. W.—If you had been less personal in your answer last week, there would not have been room for offense, as it is the girl thinks you were referring directly to her.

Miss —. I am glad to be able to solve the question which has troubled me so long. How to get rid of a quarrelsome lover? Ignore every thing that he may say of a contrary nature and listen to him only when he is in the best of spirits. By so doing he will be glad always to appear pleasant.

Next week I shall inform the girls of my opinion of etiquette at the table; how to enter the dining-room, etc.

Ella.—To remove the pimples on your face and to keep the hands soft and supple, use the juice of lemon instead of soap. Neuralgia may also be cured by rubbing the affected parts with cut lemon.

E. A.—Men are alike with but few exceptions. They all want to be the head which the women should not object to, providing that they can be the neck.

Helena.—A man could hardly accept a woman for convenience, and I am sure any lady would be guilty of such a thing.

Helena.—I am out of place to see a place of amusement in company with a man who is so much in the way.

Helena.—I am out of place to see a place of amusement in company with a man who is so much in the way.

Helena.—I am out of place to see a place of amusement in company with a man who is so much in the way.

Helena.—I am out of place to see a place of amusement in company with a man who is so much in the way.

Helena.—I am out of place to see a place of amusement in company with a man who is so much in the way.

Helena.—I am out of place to see a place of amusement in company with a man who is so much in the way.

Helena.—I am out of place to see a place of amusement in company with a man who is so much in the way.

Helena.—I am out of place to see a place of amusement in company with a man who is so much in the way.

Helena.—I am out of place to see a place of amusement in company with a man who is so much in the way.

Helena.—I am out of place to see a place of amusement in company with a man who is so much in the way.

WHEREABOUTS OF

Lawyer T. L. Jones has returned to the city from Warrenton, Va., where he has been visiting his wife and two children. Mrs. Jones and her children will not return until September 15.

Miss Bessie Fletcher is in Warrenton, Va.

Mr. J. Costello, who has been to Atlantic City for several months, has returned, looking well.

Mr. Costello is now preparing for a great political fight for delegates to the next democratic convention. He is one of the most genial democratic politicians in this city.

Mr. John Francis Brooks, the brother of Dr. Philip Brooks, who was severely injured by being thrown from his bicycle, is able to sit up.

Mr. Robert H. Key returned from Norfolk, Va., Monday morning.

Ex-Governor P. B. S. Pinchback is still in New York.

Mr. Fountain Peyton has returned to the city. He appeared in court on Monday.

Col. John W. Ross left the city last week.

Rev. Mrs. J. L. Thomas and children of Alexandria, Va., have been at Falls Church, Va., all the summer, rusticating in their cottage.

Miss Louisa Watson arrived in the city from Round Hill, Va., last Tuesday to join her mother and sister, from whence they will go to Fredericksburg, Va., to spend the remaining summer days.

Miss Barbara Pope left Silcott Springs, Va., last Saturday morning, after spending an enjoyable vacation of five weeks.

Mrs. R. T. Moss is expected in the city this week from Loudon Co., Va.

Miss Louise Connell left the city Wednesday morning for Baltimore, where she will remain with relatives until school opens.

Miss Irene Parker has returned to the city after a pleasant stay of some weeks at Frederick.

BAPTISTS IN SESSION.

ABLE SERMONS PREACHED.

The nineteenth annual session of the Mount Bethel Baptist Association convened at Mount Zion Baptist Church Tuesday morning. The convention was called to order by Rev. W. H. Hickerson, of Little Ark Baptist Church, of King George County, Va., the present moderator.

The association is composed of Baptist churches located in the District of Columbia and the States of Maryland and Virginia. Each church of the association is entitled to what is known as three messengers of delegates, and as most of the churches of the association were represented at the session, a large number of delegates, and preachers were in attendance.

As soon as the association was convened the moderator announced that the first business of the association would be the introductory sermon, which was preached by the Rev. W. H. Johnston, pastor of the Israel Baptist Church, of this city, who selected for his text the forty-fifth chapter of the Isaiah, or the twenty-second verse: "Look unto Me and be ye saved all the ends of the earth; for I am God, and there is none else." His subject was: "Sovereignty and Salvation."

At the conclusion of the representative of the Mount Zion Church of this city. The moderator then announced a committee which would conduct the count of the ballots which were cast for the different nominees for the moderator of the convention. The greater part of the morning session was devoted to the election of officials of the association for the ensuing year.

The following pastors were selected to preach the usual sermons:

On "Christian Hope," Rev. C. C. Washington; alternate, Rev. N. Jackson. Doctrinal sermon, Rev. Alexander Wilbanks; alternate, Rev. L. E. Miller. Missionary sermon, Rev. E. Parker; alternate, Rev. J. H. Lindsey. "Brotherhood of Man," Rev. H. C. Robinson of the First Baptist Church, of South Washington; alternate, Rev. C. R. Camp. "Reason and Revelation," Rev. W. T. Brooks; alternate, Rev. J. Gainer. "God's Purpose of Grace," James Robertson; alternate, Rev. R. L. Wilson.

At the afternoon session most of the delegates had arrived, eighty-four answering to the roll call. The officers elected were: W. H. Hickerson, of Virginia, moderator; R. B. Page, of Virginia, clerk, and B. Bumey, of Maryland, treasurer, for the ensuing year.

Committees were appointed to report on the following subjects: New churches, education, foreign mission, arbitration, corresponding bodies, digest and letters. It is expected that most of these committees will report to-day.

The collection from the various churches amounted to $61.

The special features of the exercises last night was an eloquent doctrinal sermon by the Rev. M. Jackson, of Baltimore. His text was "Christian Hope."

The doctrinal sermon at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning was delivered by the Rev. Alexander Wilbanks, the pastor of Mount Zion Baptist Church.

The ladies' committee deserves a great deal of credit for the excellent lunches and dinners that were served to the visiting delegates.

The following were the committee: Misses Bessie Kenny, Willie Barber, Mamie Moore, Ellen Taylor, Rosa Brooks, Annie Ellwood, Annie Willis, Lucinda Chittum, Lucy Carmine, Annie Webster, Lena Brooks, Martha Jones, Anna Winston, Mesdames Anna Brown, Mary Clinkins, Sarah Brooks, Lucinda Cook, Hettie Thomas, Misses Josephine Dodson, Clara Cuny, Mary Howard, Mesdames Mary L. Deny, and Sarah Douglass. Rev. Welbanks did things up in style. He had all the pictures of the ministers taken.

The recent promotion of Geo. W. Jackson to a first-class clerkship in the Sixth Auditor's office well merited. Col. Dougherty, who is chief of his division, stated that although there was some dissatisfaction outside of the division on account of the promotion, the entire force of the division congratulated him on recommending Mr. Jackson.

The recent promotion of Geo. W. Jackson to a first-class clerkship in the Sixth Auditor's office well merited. Col. Dougherty, who is chief of his division, stated that although there was some dissatisfaction outside of the division on account of the promotion, the entire force of the division congratulated him on recommending Mr. Jackson.

The recent promotion of Geo. W. Jackson to a first-class clerkship in the Sixth Auditor's office well merited. Col. Dougherty, who is chief of his division, stated that although there was some dissatisfaction outside of the division on account of the promotion, the entire force of the division congratulated him on recommending Mr. Jackson.

The recent promotion of Geo. W. Jackson to a first-class clerkship in the Sixth Auditor's office well merited. Col. Dougherty, who is chief of his division, stated that although there was some dissatisfaction outside of the division on account of the promotion, the entire force of the division congratulated him on recommending Mr. Jackson.

The recent promotion of Geo. W. Jackson to a first-class clerkship in the Sixth Auditor's office well merited. Col. Dougherty, who is chief of his division, stated that although there was some dissatisfaction outside of the division on account of the promotion, the entire force of the division congratulated him on recommending Mr. Jackson.

The recent promotion of Geo. W. Jackson to a first-class clerkship in the Sixth Auditor's office well merited. Col. Dougherty, who is chief of his division, stated that although there was some dissatisfaction outside of the division on account of the promotion, the entire force of the division congratulated him on recommending Mr. Jackson.

The recent promotion of Geo. W. Jackson to a first-class clerkship in the Sixth Auditor's office well merited. Col. Dougherty, who is chief of his division, stated that although there was some dissatisfaction outside of the division on account of the promotion, the entire force of the division congratulated him on recommending Mr. Jackson.

SHEARD IS LOYAL TO MILLER

EX-SPEAKER DENIES THE REPORTS ABOUT POLITICAL ENMITY.

He is Said to Have Lost Many Supporters on Account of His Loyalty to the Herkimer Statesman—Some Misunderstanding Does Exist but It is of a Private Nature and May Be Satisfactorily Adjusted—Says He and Mr. Miller Are Close Personal Friends—Financial Aid Given.

Little Falls, Aug. 28.—Articles have appeared in several of the leading papers of the State intimating that ex-Speaker Warner Miller and ex-Speaker Titus Sheard were now opposed politically to each other, and that the cause of their enmity arose from financial matters dating back to 1893. To those who know the relations between Mr. Miller and Mr. Sheard these articles appear as absurd as they are false.

It is true that there is a misunderstanding between Miller and Sheard regarding some personal transactions, which is the business of no one except the interested parties. There is no doubt but that these matters will be satisfactorily adjusted. Sheard is not now opposing Warner Miller in this county in a political sense, nor has he ever done so. On the contrary, Mr. Sheard has estranged, politically, some of his closest friends in this county on account of his loyalty to Mr. Miller. Had it not been for the political influence of Titus Sheard, Warner Miller would have been turned down early in this Herkimer county.

A State correspondent called Mr. Sheard's attention to the statements about them. He said: "I brand the statements contained in the articles as entirely false and malicious. There is not now nor has there ever been any attempt in this county to lessen Mr. Miller's political power, or to overthrow his leadership. Only last fall my friends controlled absolutely the county convention, yet Mr. Miller was permitted to name the delegates to the State convention. There is and has been no fact in the fact that I do not care to go into matters of so close a personal and confidential nature. The self-styled friends of Mr. Miller who make these charges know nothing of Mr. Miller's financial difficulties or have they ever helped him."

"They are political hangers-on who try to make capital out of Mr. Miller's misfortunes for their own special benefit. Mr. Miller and I were close personal friends, and whenever I could accommodate him financially I did so, not only prior to 1893, but since that time. I believe that if Mr. Miller or Mr. Burleigh would make public my record in this respect that they would find the absurdity of the statements in these articles would be apparent."

Mr. Sheard positively refused to go into the details of the financial matters. He considered them of a personal and private nature.

TRAMP IS ANXIOUS TO DIE.

He Gets on a Track, Stopping a Train and Jeopardizing Many Lives.

New York, Aug. 28.—A tramp, who said his name was Patrick Haggerty, and that he had been living in the woods for a month on whatever he could get to eat, got on the track in front of the north-bound local on the Hudson River railroad shortly after it left Morris Heights this morning, and paced up and down waiting for the train to strike him, and paying no attention to people who shouted to him that the train was coming. Luckily the trainmen saw him and it was to stop and he was hustled off the track and taken to the police station. The danger signals for two miles north were set, and a south-bound local was stopped half a mile ahead of the blocked train. There was a delay of five minutes before the local could be backed off, and just as it was accomplished a south-bound New Haven express whizzed by. Had there been five minutes' more delay there might have been a collision and a score of lives sacrificed to save a tramp who wanted to die.

THOUGHT THE LAST DAY HAD COME.

Wesley Washburne Becomes Insane at a Norwich Funeral.

Norwich, Aug. 28.—Considerable excitement was occasioned at the funeral of Mrs. Woodward yesterday, by Wesley Washburne, a tall young man well known in the village.

The Rev. H. M. Cryden, the officiating clergyman, was in the midst of an affecting part of his sermon, when Washburne arose and stepped into the aisle, and with a few long strides reached the rail of the altar. With a bound he leaped over them, placing his hands upon the platform, raised himself, and drew his arms about the clergyman, and violently embracing him, and it was with much difficulty that he was removed.

He was taken home and attended by a physician, who thinks it was only a temporary impulse. The latter declared that he had a revelation from God that the day of the dissolution of mortality had arrived, and that he desired to accompany the preacher in his celestial light.

FREE-FOR-ALL RACE AT LOUISVILLE

John R. Gentry, Joe Patchen and Robert J. to Contest for a $5,000 Purse.

Louisville, Aug. 28.—Secretary Horner of the Louisville Driving Association, has received a telegram from New York, stating that all arrangements have been made for a free-for-all race to take place here September 12, between John R. Gentry, Joe Patchen and Robert J. The purse will be $5,000.

Prince Ernest de Rohan Killed.

Vienna, Aug. 28.—Prince Ernest de Rohan has been killed while hunting, by a bullet from his own gun, which was accidentally discharged. He was heir to a great fortune. He had just recovered from a severe illness, having left a private hospital where he had been treated, only three weeks ago.

Montana Methodists Will Admit Women. Helena, Mont. Aug. 28.—In the Helena (Montana) Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, the question of admitting women to the general conference, on the same footing as men, was decided in favor of the women by a vote of 44 to 4.

SIX COMPANIES DISRUPTED.

See Yup Merchants Almost Ruin the Sam Yups by a Boycott.

San Francisco, Aug. 28.—The factional fight that has been going on for some time in Chinatown between the See Yup and the Sam Yup families has culminated in the disruption of the six companies, the most powerful organization ever instituted by the Chinese in this country.

The secession of the See Yup from the Six Companies leaves the latter with the small end of the organization and a depleted treasury. The boycott started by the See Yups has nearly ruined the Sam Yup merchants, and if not ended soon it will cause the retirement from business in a large number of firms. The boycott is being extended to every place in the United States where Chinese reside in any number.

This state of affairs has been telegraphed to the Chinese Minister at Washington, and a few days ago he informed the Chinese unless the boycott was declared off within twelve days he would come to San Francisco and take a hand in the controversy. This is understood to mean that some of the leaders in the warfare may expect to have their heads lopped off whenever they return to China, unless they comply with the commands of the Minister.

NO CONFIDENCE IN THEIR ATHLETES.

English Papers Expect the British Teams to Be Beaten in New York.

London, Aug. 28.—The Pall Mall Gazette this afternoon, discussing the prospects of the teams from the London Athletic Club and Cambridge University Athletic Club, which sailed yesterday by the steamship Aurania, from Liverpool for New York, says that the London Athletic Club team is in no way the powerful combination expected. "The absentees," it adds, "have very seriously weakened it, and we must anticipate a hearty beating with as much complacency as we can muster."

"The Cambridge team, too, is not especially strong, and is scarcely likely to hold its own against Yale."

JUDGE TAFT SPEAKS AT DETROIT.

He Addresses the Members of the American Bar Association.

Detroit, Aug. 28.—The feature of today's session of the meeting of the American Bar Association was the annual address, which was delivered this morning by the Hon. William H. Taft, of Ohio, Judge of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals. Judge Taft referred to the fact that within the past four years the Governors of several States had officially declared that the Federal courts had seized jurisdiction not rightly, and had turned it to the detriment of the Republic, and had made respective legislatures to petition Congress for remedial legislation to prevent future acts of this kind. His address was on this subject.

GILROY MAY BE SENATOR.

Talk That He Wants the Nomination in a Tammany District.

New York, Aug. 28.—The rumor that Thomas F. Gilroy intends to run for the Senate was discussed by politicians last night.

It is said that he may get the Tammany nomination in the Twentieth Senatorial district, which includes the Thirtieth, Thirty-second and Thirty-third Assembly districts. The leaders of these districts, John J. Ryan, W. H. Burke and Lawrence Delmour, are friendly to Gilroy.

NO AGREEMENT WITH COLONNA.

Mrs. Mackay's Daughter and Her Husband Have Not Reached an Agreement.

London, Aug. 28.—According to a despatch received here from Naples, there is no truth in the report that a formal and final settlement has been arrived at between the Princess Colonna, daughter of Mrs. John W. Mackay, and her husband, Prince Colonna, on the basis of the former having the custody of the children and the latter receiving an annual income of 60,000 francs. It is stated that the relations which have existed between the Prince and Princess for some time past are unchanged. The Prince is at Sorrento with his boys, who often visit the Princess. The latter is with her daughter, at Castellamare, and the girl frequently visits her father, Prince Colonna, at Sorrento.

MORE CHINESE OUTRAGES.

Native Evangelists Nearly Flogged to Death in the Province of Ngan-Hoei.

London, Aug. 28.—The Chronicle to-day brings a Shanghai dispatch to a news agency saying that the attacks on missionaries in China continue, notwithstanding imperial decrees for their suppression. The member of the Alliance Mission, the English says, was beaten and several native evangelists were flogged nearly to death at the yamen of a magistrate at Tsch-Sien, near Wu-Hu, in the province of Ngan-Hoei.

MINISTER RANSOM REAPPOINTED.

His Commission, Dated August 24, Sent to Him This Morning.

Washington, Aug. 27.—The White House mail this morning bore the commission of Matt M. Ransom to be United States Minister to Mexico. The commission was dated August 24. This ends a legal complication by which Minister Ransom after several months service at this post in the City of Mexico was declared unable to fill the office to which he had been appointed prior to the expiration of his term as United States Senator.

FATAL DISEASE AMONG CATTLE.

Herd of Sixty Animals Attacked by an Unknown Malady at Rome.

Rome, Aug. 28.—A fatal disease, the nature of which has not been fully determined, has broken out in Burt Olney's valuable herd of sixty cattle. Six animals have died. Inspector Quigley, of the State Department of Agriculture, has quarantined the herd for ten days and taken some of the blood of the diseased cattle for examination.

New Fair Association at Sidney.

Sidney, Aug. 28.—The fair grounds at this place have been purchased by a company of local capitalists, and the annual fairs, which were about to be abandoned by the defunct association, will now be continued under new management. It is said that the property, including all improvements, and costing $12,000, was purchased for about $4,000.

AS GRAY GABLES APPEARS NOW.

One of the Most Unpretentious Homes on Buzzard's Bay.

Gray Gables is one of the most unpretentious homes among the fashionable localities of the Massachusetts coast, says the Washington Post. The house is comparatively small, as the cottages of to-day go, and from the driveways in the vicinity all that is visible of the place are the gray gables, thickly surrounded by the tree tops near the house.

The entire place has been done over to a considerable extent the past year and is greatly improved. The alterations in the interior of the house were according to Mrs. Cleveland's suggestions as to convenience and economy of space. There have been two more guest chambers added by dividing one large room on the second floor, and the children will hereafter occupy rooms in the third story. Near their sleeping apartments is a large and airy playroom, where, during the damp, unpleasant days, the little girls can have tea parties.

Without, Gray Gables is epic and span. All of the scrub oak and pitch pine underbrush has been entirely removed, and the President has spent quite an amount in landscape gardening. Several pretty flower beds, filled with bright blossoms of all sorts, have been constructed near the house for Mrs. Cleveland, who is so devoted to flowers that she hardly has a favorite. The driveways have been enlarged and greatly improved, and a new entrance has been constructed. An ice-house has also been added to the place, which fact, however, has no political significance.

Above all, Gray Gables now boasts of a fine landing, and so large as to indicate that a finer and larger boat than ever before will land there. The President is devoted to all pleasures connected with the salt water, and is especially fond of deep sea fishing.

This Snake Ate Sixty-five Ducks.

For some time past Thomas Mhoon, a truck farmer living near Baltimore, has been missing each day a number of young ducks. They disappeared so mysteriously that their loss could not be accounted for in any manner. All theories as to how they were taken were smashed to pieces when it was known that no one had been near the place during the day where the ducks were wont to pass away the time. No feathers or other vestige could be found, which would undoubtedly have been the case if the fowls had been made away with by hawk or some "varmint."

When 65 of the fluffy youngsters had disappeared Mhoon determined to watch the ducks for a day. He followed them down to the field to the little branch where they slipped into the water. No sooner had they arrived there than shades of St. Patrick—from a neighboring clump of bushes appeared such a snake as Mhoon had never seen before outside of a show. He is not a drinking man and is not accustomed to see such things in broad daylight, but he had to pinch himself to make certain that he was in his right senses. While his eyes stuck out of his head in terror the monster snake glided up to the ducks, when they all set up a terrific quacking, as if they knew the end of the world was coming for some of them.

By this time the man had recovered himself, and, hastily running to the house, he secured his shotgun and returned to where he had seen the snake.

When he reached there he found the snake, which seemed 15 feet long and one foot thick, making off with a duck in its mouth. Mhoon pulled the trigger of the gun. When the smoke cleared away the reptile was stretched out, lashing its tail in fury. Mhoon kept away until its struggles had ceased, and approached it. He found out it was a moccasin, and when measured it was as long as a fence rail, about 9 feet 4 inches. E. G. Miller, a cigarmaker, of No. 550 Wilson street, helped Mhoon measure the snake, and will vouch for the reliability of the measurements.—Baltimore Herald.

American Energy. Every disaster or calamity that comes upon communities in this country serves to illustrate the marvelous energy and perseverance of the American people, and the story of the rebuilding of the little city of Phillips, in Wisconsin, is only one of many cases in point.

On July 27, 1894, Phillips was completely wrecked by fire, the people were hungry and without shelter, and were largely dependent upon the gifts of outside communities for food and clothing. There was not an industrial building left standing, and although there were logs to be had in the surrounding country there were no sawmills left to transform them into building lumber. The forest fires had devastated the fields as well as the city, and the farmers in the neighborhood were without seed for the next crop. But everybody went heart and soul into the work of reconstruction. Adversity did not dismay them, and they were encouraged by the generosity of the outside world.

On Saturday, July 27, just one year from the day on which their homes were smoldering in ruins, the people celebrated the complete restoration of their city. Churches, schoolhouses, stores, homes, sawmills, tanneries and barns have been rebuilt, and what was before a collection of inflammable frame buildings is now one of brick and stone.

The spirit of the pioneers who blazed out a path for progress still lives, and it would be hard to measure the future of such a country and such a people.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Taking Castor Oil.

A trained nurse says: "Give castor oil in lemon juice, and the unpleasant taste of the medicine is destroyed. Squeeze the juice into a wineglass, add the oil and drink quickly." The same authority on the virtues of the spice plant in relieving pain in dysenteric troubles: "Take a teaspoonful each of ground cloves, cinnamon, ginger, allspice, mustard, and mix dry in a bowl with a teaspoonful of flour. Pour on a little boiling water to make a smooth paste, and smear on a piece of cheesecloth, putting a second piece over as a covering. Apply as hot as can be borne."

An Urgent Landlady.

An aged lady complained to a London magistrate that because she was a little behind with her rent her landlady followed her to church and asked for it there. The landlady came into the pew alongside her, and when she was joining in the responses was constantly whispering to her about the rent. When it came to her response, "Incline our hearts to thee," the landlady would add, "To pay your rent." The magistrate said that it was very annoying, but there was nothing illegal in it.

AMUSEMENTS.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

EDWARD HALLEN, - - - MANAGER.

OPENING DRAMATIC SEASON,

WEEK COMMENCING MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 2.

Every Performance Except Saturday Night

ROBT. DOWNING

IN

"DELEPA,"

A ROMANTIC DRAMA

BY VICTORINE SARDOU.

SATURDAY NIGHT, By Request,

THE GLADIATOR.

SATURDAY MATINEE ONLY.

Wm. H. BROOKER,

PROPRIETOR OF THE

RICHMOND HOUSE,

WINES, LIQUORS, AND CIGARS.

Meals at all Hours,